Your Life At Rest In Christ

Dr. Scott Pace

Text: Psalm 23

1. We should follow our Shepherd. (v.1-4)

- He leads us to pastures of rest. (v.1-2)
 - The goal of a shepherd is to restore/renew
- He leads us in paths of righteousness. (v.3)
- He leads us with peaceful reassurance. (v.4)
 - Just because times are difficult, doesn't mean we have wandered off the path
 - Isaiah 40: He carries His sheep close to His chest.
 - In the valley - God's presence is tangible

2. We should fellowship with our King. (v.5-6)

- He shields us from harm. (v.5)
 - The world will resent you when you have fellowship with Him
- He showers us with honor. (v.5)
 - Honored guests are anointed with oil, we are not just invited, we are honored.

3. God's Presence Gives You Direction (v. 9-11)

- He satisfies us with hope. (v.6)
 - Jesus is our hope and He walked this Psalm! Through the valley of the shadow of death.
